

Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals, but we are being perfected through Jesus Christ, our Savior, in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music videos as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the work of the church.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. —

Minister’s Corner

Shalom aleikhem! שלום עליכם Peace be upon you!

Good morning, and welcome! Although I am away this Sunday, my heart is with you as you gather to worship our faithful God. I am grateful for our church family and for the privilege of belonging to one another in Christ, even when we cannot all be together physically. I am also thankful for Pat and his willingness to bring us a message from God's Word today. I pray that our time of worship will strengthen our faith and encourage us in our walk with the Lord.

This morning Pat will share a message entitled “Living Letters,” drawn from 2 Corinthians 2:14–17. In this passage, Paul reminds us that God spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of Christ through His people. Our lives communicate something about Jesus long before we speak a word. To some, that testimony is welcomed; to others, it may be rejected. Yet our calling remains the same: to represent Christ faithfully and sincerely wherever God places us. That is an awesome responsibility and privilege! As we worship today, may we consider what others see of Christ in us and ask God to make our lives a testimony that brings glory to His name and draws others toward Him.
