

Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals, but we are being perfected through Jesus Christ, our Savior, in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music videos as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the work of the church.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. –

Fill out and place in the Offering Plate.
Thank you!*

Minister’s Corner

Shalom aleikhem! שָׁלוֹם עֲלֵיכֶם Peace be upon you!

Good morning, and welcome! We are grateful that you have joined us today as we gather to worship our gracious God. Each Sunday reminds us that the church is made up of imperfect people who have been transformed by the perfect grace of Christ. As we sing, pray, and study His Word together, may we be encouraged to grow not only in our knowledge of God, but also in our love for one another.

This morning we continue our journey through the Book of Acts as we consider two events that seem difficult to reconcile. Paul and Barnabas have a sharp disagreement and part ways. Then, immediately afterward, Paul has Timothy circumcised—even though the Apostles had just affirmed that circumcision was not required for salvation. Together, these accounts remind us that there is a difference between compromising the gospel and wisely removing unnecessary obstacles to the gospel. May God grant us the wisdom to stand firmly for His truth while showing grace, humility, and love in all matters that do not compromise the faith.

This Wednesday – July 15th, 6PM Dinner & 7PM Bible Class

Please make plans to join us for our BYOD (Bring Your Own Dinner) mid-week Fellowship at 6PM on Wednesday. This is a great time to connect, strengthen relationships and catch up with one another.

From 7PM we will continue the study on the book of Isaiah. Please make plans to join us.
