Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals, but we are being perfected through Jesus Christ, our Savior, in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music videos as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the work of the church.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. – Please see the other side of this flap. Fill out and place in the Offering Plate. Thank you!

Minister's Corner

Shalom aleikhem! שָׁלוֹם עֲלֵיכֶם Peace be upon you!

Good morning, and welcome! I am grateful to be together again today as we gather to worship our great and wonderful God. In a world filled with uncertainty, competing ideas, and countless distractions, it is easy to lose sight of the most important questions of life: Who is God? Why are we here? What does He expect of us? And how can we truly know Him? These are not merely philosophical questions, but questions that reach into the very purpose of our existence.

This morning we end our journey through Acts 17, where Paul stands before the philosophers of Athens and introduces them to the God they did not know. He speaks of the Creator who needs nothing from us yet gives us everything; the Lord who rules over nations, yet desires that every person seek and find Him. Paul reminds us that God is not distant from His creation, nor can He be confined to buildings, traditions, or human imagination. As we worship today, may we be reminded that the God who made the world and everything in it desires something far greater than our religious observances. He desires that we truly know Him, seek Him, and live in response to His truth.
