Minister's Corner

Good morning to you on this 2nd Sunday of Lent. Thank you for joining us for our worship gathering this morning. I pray that the beginning of this week finds you closer to God than at the beginning of last week. We've been talking about the different names of God as He invites us to experience Him in the dimension of those characteristics. So far, we've look at God as our Abba – Father and as our Provider and I pray that you've been able to see clearer your relationship with Him as a Father and Provider. The Bible tells us that every good and perfect thing comes from our Abba, from our Father and as such, being able to recognize that in our daily lives brings a continuous perspective of overflowing abundance. What are you grateful for today? What are you thanking God for?

Today we will look at another dimension of our relationship with God, where He is our Protector. The One Who sees us, Who knows our circumstances and never leaves us alone. May our time together this morning bless you with strength, increased faith and an even better week ahead because you've been here this morning.

This Wednesday – March 20th – Family Time & Scripture Reading

Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals but we are perfected in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the church's work.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. – Please see the other side of this flap. Fill out and place in the Offering Plate. Thank you!
