

Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals, but we are being perfected through Jesus Christ, our Savior, in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music videos as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the work of the church.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. —
*Please see the other side of this flap.
Fill out and place in the Offering Plate.
Thank you!*

Minister’s Corner

Shalom aleikhem! שָׁלוֹם עֲלֵיכֶם Peace be upon you!
Good morning, and welcome! I am grateful that you have joined us today as we gather to worship our faithful God. Life often unfolds in ways we do not expect. We make plans, pursue opportunities, and pray for open doors, only to find that sometimes the answer is "not yet" or even "no." In those moments, we may wonder if God is still leading. Acts 16 reminds us that He is.
...This morning we continue our journey through the Book of Acts as we explore Acts 16:6–10. Three times Paul and his companions are redirected by God before receiving the vision that called them to Macedonia. The closed doors were not signs of God's absence, but evidence of His guidance. The Lord was preparing something greater than they could yet see. The same is true for us. God often leads us as much through the doors He closes as through the ones He opens. As we worship today, may we grow in confidence that our Heavenly Father is directing our steps with perfect wisdom, even when we cannot yet see where the road will lead.

This Wednesday – July 22nd, 6PM Dinner & 7PM Bible Class
Please make plans to join us for our BYOD (Bring Your Own Dinner) mid-week Fellowship at 6PM on Wednesday. This is a great time to connect, strengthen relationships and catch up with one another.
From 7PM we will continue the study on the book of Isaiah. Please make plans to join us.
