

Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals, but we are being perfected through Jesus Christ, our Savior, in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music videos as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the work of the church.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. –

Fill out and place in the Offering Plate.
Thank you!*

Minister's Corner

Shalom aleikhem! שלום עליכם Peace be upon you!

Good morning, and welcome! I am grateful to gather, this morning, as a church family to worship our faithful and sovereign God. Each week we are reminded that no matter what is happening in our world, the Lord remains on His throne—unchanging, all-knowing, and fully in control. I hope it brings you comfort to begin our time together anchored in that truth.

Today we turn to Acts 12 and reflect on a powerful theme: God's sovereignty over governments. In this chapter, King Herod exerts his authority, persecutes the church, and appears to hold power over life and death. Yet behind the scenes—and ultimately in plain sight—it is God who rules. James is martyred, Peter is delivered, and Herod himself faces judgment. The message is clear: earthly rulers rise and fall, but the purposes of God stand firm. As we worship today, may our hearts rest in the confidence that no power can thwart His will, atomic bombs, or not.

Please make plans to join us for our BYOD (Bring Your Own Dinner) mid-week Fellowship at 6PM on Wednesday. This is a great time to connect, strengthen relationships and catch up with one another.
