Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals, but we are being perfected through Jesus Christ, our Savior, in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music videos as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the work of the church.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. – Please see the other side of this flap. Fill out and place in the Offering Plate. Thank you!

Minister's Corner

Shalom aleikhem! שָׁלוֹם עֲלֵיכֶם Peace be upon you!

Good morning, and welcome! I am, as always, grateful that you have joined us today as we gather to worship our faithful God. One of the greatest blessings of studying Scripture together is discovering how God's plan of salvation unfolds from beginning to end.

This morning we return to Acts 17, where Paul reasons from the Scriptures, explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise from the dead. For many, the idea of a suffering Messiah seemed impossible. They expected a conquering King, not a crucified Savior. Yet Paul showed that the suffering of Christ was not a tragic interruption of God's plan, but an essential part of it. Why did the Christ have to suffer? What does His suffering reveal about God's justice, love, and the nature of our salvation? As we worship today, may we approach these questions with open hearts and allow God's Word to deepen our understanding of the extraordinary price of our redemption.
