

Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals, but we are being perfected through Jesus Christ, our Savior, in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music videos as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the work of the church.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. –

Minister’s Corner

Shalom aleikhem! שלום עליכם Peace be upon you!

Good morning, and welcome! Today we give thanks to God for the blessing of fathers who have shaped our lives through love, sacrifice, guidance, and faithful examples. On Father’s Day, we give thanks for all fathers, grandfathers, stepfathers, spiritual fathers, and all the men who have poured wisdom, protection, and encouragement into the lives of others.

This morning we turn to Ephesians 6:1–4, for our sermon, where God speaks both to children and to fathers. In these verses, we are reminded that the home is one of the first and most powerful places where faith is formed. Fathers are called to not provoke their children to anger, but to “bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.” That is a high and holy calling. In a world where parenting can easily swing between harshness and passivity, God calls fathers to something better: strength shaped by love, correction guided by wisdom, and leadership rooted in Christ. As we worship today, may we give thanks for the faithful men God has placed in our lives, and may all of us be encouraged to build homes and relationships that reflect the grace and truth of our heavenly Father, Who, alone, is the standard of true fatherhood.
