

Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals, but we are being perfected through Jesus Christ, our Savior, in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music videos as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the work of the church.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. –

Minister’s Corner

Shalom aleikhem! שלום עליכם Peace be upon you!

Good morning to you all and thank you for being a part of the worship gathering at Troy Church this morning. One of the things I’ve grown accustomed to do is coin a phrase I tell myself every time I come through one of the doors in this place. A phrase that helps me to refocus or gain the right perspective no matter how my week has been. For me, it is a Bible verse, for you it could be something else that may help you switch your brain to the right attitude. There are times when I come to church and I am wore out and tired. You may be surprised as this verse has nothing to do with worship, however it is absolutely conducive to worship as it is, I believe, the worship God wants, the very basis of worship. That verse is Philippians 2:3-4 – “Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.” These verses make me forget everything hanging heavy on my shoulders, or tiredness, or anything else and allows me to focus on church, worship and God. What is your phrase?

This Wednesday – 28th May – Fellowship Dinner & Bible Class – 6:00PM

Please make plans to join us for our BYOD (Bring Your Own Dinner) mid-week Fellowship at 6PM on Wednesday. This is a great time to connect, strengthen relationships and catch up with one another.

Church of Christ Care Center – Next Sunday

Next Sunday is June 1st, the 1st Sunday of the month and it is again Troy Church’s turn to minister to the older folks at the Care Center. Please plan to attend and bless the residents there through your singing, prayers and encouraging words. When there is more of us there singing sounds amazing. If you’ve never been, you may find yourself thinking, “Troy Church can actually sing...” lol. Please join us!.
