

January 28th, 2023

Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals, but we are being perfected through Jesus Christ, our Savior, in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music videos as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the work of the church.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. –
*Please see the other side of this flap.
Fill out and place in the Offering Plate. Thank you!*

Minister's Corner

Shalom aleikhem! שלום עליכם Peace be upon you!

It seems as if it was yesterday that I was writing this text but for last week's bulletin. Time indeed flies. We barely started this month and year and we already find ourselves on the last Sunday of January. As we contemplate today's worship service, I want to, first of all, thank you for your presence among us and secondly to challenge you to think of your time here on earth and the plans God has for you. Last week we looked a little bit at the parable of the talents, and I can't help but ask myself what are the talents that God gave me to multiply and make useful in this world. Which people are yet to hear the Gospel because I am not ready to share it with them? Have I buried the talent God gave me in the ground waiting safely for our Lord's return? What about you? If you don't know the story, find it at Matthew 25:14-30

This Wednesday – January 31st – Family Time & Bible Study
