

Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals, but we are being perfected through Jesus Christ, our Savior, in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music videos as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the work of the church.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. –

Minister’s Corner

Shalom aleikhem! שָׁלוֹם עֲלֵיכֶם Peace be upon you!
Good afternoon, and welcome! We are grateful you have joined us today as we gather to worship our faithful God. One of the great blessings of belonging to Christ is discovering that the Gospel was never intended to touch only isolated individuals—it changes relationships, influences families, and can transform entire households. Faith may begin in one heart, but its influence was never meant to remain there.
This afternoon we will look at the household conversions recorded throughout Acts and ask what they teach us about faith, baptism, and the way the Gospel entered first-century homes. These passages deserve careful attention—not simply to defend what we have always believed, but to hear honestly what Scripture says. Again and again we find the good news proclaimed, people responding in faith, and baptism marking a decisive beginning of life in Christ. As we worship today, may we approach God's Word with humble hearts, willing to follow the evidence wherever it leads, and may the faith we profess become a blessing not only to us, but to our children, our families, and everyone God has placed within our influence.
