

Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals, but we are being perfected through Jesus Christ, our Savior, in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music videos as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the work of the church.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. —
*Please see the other side of this flap.
Fill out and place in the Offering Plate.
Thank you!*

Minister's Corner

Shalom aleikhem! שְׁלוֹם עֲלֵיכֶם Peace be upon you!

Good morning, and welcome! Last Sunday we began walking with Paul into Thessalonica, where he reasoned from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ. We were reminded that our faith is not built merely upon feelings or personal experiences, but upon truth that can be examined, understood, and confidently shared. This morning we return to Acts 17 and continue that conversation.

As the Gospel takes root in Thessalonica, however, not everyone welcomes it. Some believe, while others respond with jealousy, hostility, and even violence. What their opponents considered a threat was actually the transforming power of the Gospel at work. Wherever Jesus is truly proclaimed and received, things cannot simply remain as they were. Hearts change, priorities change, loyalties change, and lives change. As we worship today, may God give us the courage not merely to believe the Gospel, but to live it so faithfully that its transforming power can be seen in us, our families, our church, and our community.

This Wednesday – October 7th, 6PM Dinner & 7PM Bible Class
