

Dear Guest,

Welcome to the Church, the group of believers in Christ that gathers at this location.

Whatever the reason that brought you through our doors we are very happy you chose to be with us today. We are not perfect as individuals, but we are being perfected through Jesus Christ, our Savior, in our love for each other and the love for God.

Although our affiliation is with the acapella Churches of Christ as an organization, our services include some instrumental music videos as well as the participation of women in prayer and different elements of our assembly time.

We observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday as the focal point of our gathering and also take a collection to support the work of the church.

As a guest you are not expected to take part in any of these practices and we hope they will not create you any discomfort. We would love to talk to you about any of our practices. –
*Please see the other side of this flap.
Fill out and place in the Offering Plate.
Thank you!*

Minister's Corner

Shalom aleikhem! שלום עליכם Peace be upon you!

Good morning, and it is wonderful to be back with you! I am grateful for the opportunity to gather once again with this church family in worship, fellowship, and the study of God's Word. Thank you for your prayers, encouragement, and faithfulness. I am also thankful for Pat Oja's willingness to serve in my absence and for the way God continues to work through many members of this congregation.

Today we return to our journey through the Book of Acts, looking at Acts 14:21–28. These verses bring Paul and Barnabas to the end of their first missionary journey, but not before they strengthen believers, encourage perseverance, and remind them that "we must go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." Yet the chapter does not end with hardship—it ends with rejoicing over all that God had done and the doors He had opened for the spread of the gospel. This passage reminds us that the Christian life is not measured by the absence of difficulties, but by the faithfulness of God through them. As we worship today, may we be encouraged to persevere, strengthened in our faith, and filled with gratitude for all that God continues to do among His people.
